KARATAGH IS WIPED OUT

Series of Quakes Loosens Immense Mass of Rock and Earth Which Sweeps Over City

TASHKEND, Russian Turkistan, Oct. 30.—The entire population of Karatagh, in Bokhara, numbering 15,000 people, were killed by a mountain slide following an earthquake. The town is completely destroyed.

Karatagh is situated a hundred miles southeast of Samarkand, where several quakes occurred Oct. 20. The disturbances were recorded by the weather bureau at Washington where the mystery of their whereabouts was a subject of newspaper talk. It was believed they originated in southern India, west of Australia. Dispatches received the same day from St. Petersburg reported heavy shocks in Central Asia, Lattakurgan, Khokand and other places. Karatagh is situated in this mountainous country and the quake is believed to have loosened the rock and earth that formed the slide.

Governor Escapes.
The slide was poised over the city for days and its turns had begun to abate, so that the people felt safe. At last it started so suddenly that the citizens had no chance to escape. Many buildings had already been ruined and throngs of people were encamped in the streets, when the slide occurred. The governor and his mother are the only ones who are positively known to have escaped, but it is thought others in the suburbs also survive. Communication with the stricken city is cut off and it will probably be many days before the exact fact is known.

Rescuers are on the way to save any who may be still alive. It is generally thought the number of dead will not fall below 15,000.

WILL IN FOREIGN PEN FILED TODAY WITH TRANSLATION

A queer will, that of Andrew Fantys, who died last August at his home in the southern section of the city, was filed in probate court today. The will is written in Bohemian, and accompanying the instrument is a translation into English. Fantys disposed of an estate valued at $1,000 to his widow, Mrs. Mary Fantys, and his children, Frank Fantys, Joseph Fantys, Anna Schubert, Christian Renner and Jeanette Fantys. Each of the children receives $100, and the widow the remainder of the estate.

CIRCULAR PERIOD IN CAMPAIGN OPEN

THREE IN WISCONSIN NOW

Taft, La Follette and Bryan Are Writing Letters to Citizens' Possible Supporters

MADISON, Wis., Oct. 30.—(Special.)—Wisconsin voters are already besieged by letters from three presidential candidates—Senator La Follette, Secretary of War William H. Taft, and William J. Bryan.

The conference of the La Follette leaders yesterday confirms the expectation that not only will they make a strenuous fight to carry the Wisconsin delegation, but likewise a number of other states in the northwest. The Chicago campaign bureau of Secretary of War Taft has secured lists of the rural routes of the state and is mailing cards and monthly letters to the people, telling of the popularity of the big man.

Great stress is being laid on the outcome of the Chicago Tribune's vote announced some time ago, which on the surface was favorable to Taft, but which was in fact more an endorsement of La Follette. An analysis of the vote is made, and there is apparent a hope of Taft to number Wisconsin among his states.

At Senator La Follette's conference yesterday nothing definite was announced except that a systematic campaign will be made of the state and of the northwest. Speaker Ekern of the assembly is in charge of the management of the campaign and nearly half a dozen clerks are busy mailing literature and answering letters.

Members of the La Follette conference decline to explain what their movements in this state will be and Speaker Ekern, who will have charge of carrying out the plans, is characteristically non-committal.

In the meantime the democrats are planning to keep their following in line and secure a solid delegation for Mr. Bryan at the national convention. The commoner will begin a tour of the state on Nov. 7, starting at Milwaukee and speaking in Sheboygan, Wausau, Manitowoc, and perhaps La Crosse.

Attorney John A. Aylward, democratic gubernatorial candidate from this city, will accompany Mr. Bryan on a part of his tour and will be one of the speakers at the Milwaukee banquet given in Mr. Bryan's honor. H. H. Manson, state chairman of the democratic campaign, will accompany Mr. Bryan on his trip, and the party's presidential candidate will be feted at every place where he speaks.

SMALL, THROUGH HIS HAT, CALLS STRIKE OFF—MEN STICK

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—Following a meeting last evening of the telegraphers union, in which a request of deposed President Small to speak was denied, the operators voted to "stick" to the end of their strike. After his repulse at the union meeting Small officially declared the strike off, declaring he had secured conditions that would be satisfactory to a majority of the rank and file, the "concessions" including a 10 per cent increase. Small said:

"The present negotiations were begun Saturday, Oct. 13 and have been carried on by wire and mail until I returned to New York a few days ago, when they were ended."

Supt. Brooks of the Western Union said his company had made no offer to compromise with the strikers.

LAYS OFF 5,000 MEN

OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 30.—Five thousand men employed in construction gangs along the line of the Union Pacific have been laid off.

Mr. Mohler said all work not absolutely necessary at present was being stopped. All men engaged in new work all along the system are being laid off. This includes the grading outfits on Lane cutoff, on which $6,000,000 has been expended to save ten miles of distance.

Work on the construction of new lines in Kansas, Nebraska and Colorado has been stopped and all the engineering gangs in the field and all men engaged in double tracking have been laid off.

THE ALL ABSORBING QUESTION-- "HAS HE CHANGED HIS MIND?"

I AM deeply sensible of the honor done me by the American people in thus expressing their confidence in what I have done and have tried to do. I appreciate to the full the solemn responsibility this confidence imposes upon me, and I shall do all that in my power lies not to forfeit it. On the 4th of March next I shall have served three and a half years, and this three and a half years constitutes my first term. The wise custom which limits the president to two terms regards the substance and not the form, and under no circumstances will I be a candidate for or accept another nomination. — Statement by President Roosevelt Nov. 8, 1904.

CAR COMPANY MUST OBEY CITY'S LAWS

MAYOR ANDERSON GETS EVI-DENCE OF DANGEROUS WORK

CROSSING RULES IGNORED

Superintendent Livermore Officially Informed and Told Men Must Respect Ordinances

Strict observance of the laws and ordinances governing the conduct of street car conductors and motormen in passing steam railroad crossings is the aim of Mayor Anderson, provided the patrons of the cars and the public generally shall contribute their share to the effort.

Recently complaints regarding delinquencies of street car employees at crossings have come to the city hall, and after verification of the stories through a police watch set at the crossings from which complaints came, Dr. Anderson apprised Superintendent Livermore of the results and notified him that in the future the rules will be strictly enforced. Dr. Anderson's letter follows:

Office of the Mayor, La Crosse, Oct. 28th, 1907.

Mr. S. B. Livermore, superintendent La Crosse City Railway, La Crosse, Wis.

Dear Sir: Reports having been made to me by citizens that requisite care was not exercised by employees of your company at railroad crossings, I have had observations made, for the purpose of verifying or correcting such reports, with the following results.

On the first occasion, within a period of two hours, at one crossing of a steam railroad track, your cars failed to come to a stop six times, and in seven instances conductors did not leave their cars to flag the crossing.

On the second occasion, within the space of two hours, your cars failed to stop before crossing, ten times and ten conductors of cars did not flag the crossing.

Although such neglect must be in violation of your orders, I have felt it obligatory to give instructions to the chief of police to take immediate action should there be a single recurrence of this violation of the law, after this letter has been received and acknowledged by you. It is also my intention, at that time, to permit this to be made public in order that our officers may have the co-operation of others in safe-guarding the patrons of your lines. Please acknowledge receipt by the bearer.

Yours respectfully,
WENDELL A. ANDERSON,
Mayor.

GOLD FOR AMERICA; BANKS WILL RESUME; REPORT A RECORD

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—A cable says $2,915,000 in gold was withdrawn from the Bank of England for shipment to the United States this morning.

The financial condition here is steady and continues to improve. No new disturbances of any importance are reported, and the banking world is becoming more at ease. A number of the banks that suspended temporarily are getting ready to resume business.

In the stock market the chief interest attached to the report of the United States Steel corporation. It showed net earnings for the September quarter of $43,504,255, the largest ever reported for any similar period. This, however, did not suffice to create a bullish movement, as the falling off in orders has already been large this month, and a further diminution accompanied by cancellation of orders already in is anticipated, due to retrenchments in railroad and other construction work. The stock easily held its own without artificial support, but did not advance. Other stocks were irregular, although there was nothing depressing about the market. In fact, the tone is as good as could possibly be expected under the conditions.

RUSSIAN MUTINEERS ATTACK VLADIVOSTOK

TOKIO, Oct. 30.—The Jiji today prints a story from Vladivostok saying the crew of two Russian torpedo boats there mutinied and attacked the city from the sea. The soldiers garrisoning the fortress responded, the duel resulting in the two torpedo boats being disabled. The casualties are unknown.

GERMANY TO PURGE ITS OFFICIALDOM

VON MOLTKE'S DISGRACE TO CAUSE HOUSE-CLEANING

THE KAISER IS VERY ANGRY

Papers Indorse His Plan to Investigate—Many More Believed to Like Von Moltke

BERLIN, Oct. 30.—Germany is not satisfied to stop at the ruin of Von Moltke, the disgraced baron whose revolting life has been exposed by his conviction in the Harden libel suit. The press declares the campaign started by Harden will not be dropped. The Tageblatt says men guilty of immoralities as shocking as those of Moltke are still holding high positions about the kaiser, and that they must be exposed and expelled in disgrace. Officialdom expects the kaiser to order a vast investigation.

"Housecleaning" Expected.

There is no doubt that one result of the conviction and humiliation of Von Moltke will be a strengthening of the socialist propaganda, as the newspapers of that party already are taking the fullest advantage of it to attack the monarchical principle which allowed such a condition of affairs to exist as was revealed by the evidence.

Another result will be a thorough cleaning out by the kaiser of all the offices and others who were in any way implicated in the scandal, which has been a stench in the nostrils of Germany for a long time.

Stories of the doings of the court clique were current for along time before Harden took up the matter in his paper. When Harden became convinced that these men were influencing or seeking to influence the kaiser in political matters he opened his attacks. Von Moltke was so seriously involved that the attention of the kaiser was called to the affair, with the result that Von Moltke resigned his post as military governor of Berlin. Others whose names had been mentioned decamped temporarily. Much of the evidence on which Harden's charges were based was furnished by Countess von Elbe, Von Moltke's divorced wife.

Von Moltke said if the case went against him he would commit suicide, and many believe that he will carry the threat into execution at the first opportunity. Never before in the history of the puritanical court of Germany has there been such a scandal as this. The kaiser is infuriated that such disgrace should be brought on his court, and already has taken steps to purge it of the dishonor.

BALL CONVENTION WOULD FIGHT PLAN

LEAGUE IMPROBABLE

LAST SEASON PROFITABLE

Owners Made Good Money Out of the National Sport According to the Report of the Secretary

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—The semi-annual meeting of the National Association of Professional Baseball leagues opened at noon yesterday in the Fifth Avenue hotel with a large assemblage of club owners, officials and players from every section of the country present.

President Patrick T. Powers reported the organization in excellent shape and the season just closed satisfactory. He referred to the newspaper comments regarding the possible formation of a third league, but said no notification had been given to the officers of the association that such an attempt would be made, and he thought the report was baseless.

President Pullman of the National league made a brief speech in which he declared himself opposed to members of the major leagues going out to California at the close of the eastern season and playing with outlaw clubs.

Orders Player to Return.

He said notification had been sent to the clubs of the National league forbidding them to allow their players to engage in the practice, and those players of the league now on the Pacific slope, he said, had been commanded to cease their connection with organizations outside the power of organized baseball.

Mr. Pullman expressed himself as opposed to the farming out of players and to the drafting by the major leagues of so many men from the minor leagues.

Referring to the rumors of a third major league being organized, he said that if the flag of disloyalty was raised it would find a loyal banner arrayed against it, and let it be understood that any effort in that direction would be fought strenuously.

Secretary Farrell's report showed that there are thirty leagues in the association, comprising 195 clubs and representing 244 cities. During the last season 4,300 players were handled by the association. The association received and paid out $265,- 300 for the season just closed. The year was a most profitable one to owners.

Joe was offered a fight with Bat-

GIRL MURDERER CARRIES DYNAMITE

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 30.— Gen. Maximoffsky, director of the department of prisons of the ministry of the interior, was shot and killed by a girl.

The assassination of Maximoffsky apparently was designed to be only a prelude to a greater act of terrorism, the destruction of the headquarters of the secret police, which has been the object of at least three terrorist plots in recent months.

When the slayer of Gen. Maximoff-sky, who tonight was identified as Mile. Ragozinukova of Perm province, the daughter of a teacher in the Imperial Conservatory of Music, was taken to the police station her agitated attempts to free her bound hands and reach toward her breast led to an investigation, and it was found that she carried inside her corset a case containing thirteen pounds of high explosive, a charge powerful enough to blow the entire building and its occupants to pieces.

SERIOUS HAZING AT ROLLA, MO.

ROLLA, Mo., Oct. 30.—As a result of class rivalry of several weeks' standing twenty sophomores of the state school of mines were routed out of bed last night and, half clad, were taken from their rooms and tied to trees on the campus of the school, where they remained until daylight, shivering in the nipping atmosphere.

After they had been released by other sophomores the entire sophomore class rallied, captured seventy-five freshmen, bound their arms with ropes and chains and marched them around town accompanied by the school band.

School Director Young was forced to declare a holiday today, as the class rooms were vacant.
The trouble arose over the refusal of the freshmen to obey the injunction of the sophomores to wear green caps with yellow buttons.

It's a bet that Lot's wife didn't

A HOME MADE BLOOD REMEDY.

A leading health journal, in answering the question, "What is the best prescription to clean and purify the blood," prints in a recent issue the following: Fluid Extract of Dandelion one-half ounce, Compound Kargon one ounce, Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla three ounces. Shake well and use in teaspoonful doses after each meal and at bedtime.

A well known local druggist who is familiar with this prescription states that it is harmless, being composed of simple ingredients which can be obtained from any good prescription pharmacy.

It cleans the blood of all impurities and nourishes the blood in just a few days the skin begins to clear of sores, boils and pimples. It puts vigor and energy into run-down, debilitated men and women. For many years Sarsaparilla alone has been considered a good blood medicine. But while it built up and made new blood, the impurities remained within and the good accomplished was only temporary. Sarsaparilla, however, when used in combination with Compound Kargon and Extract Dandelion works wonders. This combination puts the kidneys to work to filter and sift out the waste matter, uric acid and other impurities that cause disease.
It makes new blood and relieves rheumatism and lame back and bladder troubles.

This prescription is better than the usual patent medicines, which are in the most part alcoholic concoctions.
The ingredients cost but little and are easily mixed at home. Every man and woman here should make some up and try it if they feel their system requires a good blood medicine and tonic.

The Kargon to clean the kidneys and vitalize them so they can clean the blood, Sarsaparilla to make new rich blood and Dandelion to tone the stomach, clean the liver and make it active and relieve constipation is the way the prescription acts, and so mildly and gently that one does not consider they are taking a medicine.

ROBBED OF $14,000 IN SLEEPING CAR

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—The police of this city received information that William J. Payne of Richmond, Va., who is said to be the president of the Newport News Gas company, the Newport News & Old Point Rye Electric company, and connected with other large enterprises, while on his way from Washington to New York city yesterday afternoon was robbed of a leather grip containing $14,000 in bond and stock certificates.
The robbery was committed, it is said, while Mr. Payne was taking a nap in a Pullman in which he was riding.

He believes the person who stole the grip left the train at Wilmington,

PROF. FOWLER WILL ILLUSTRATE LECTURE

The lecture on forestry which is to be given by National Secretary Thomas S. Will of Washington, D.
C., in the small council chamber at the city hall will be illustrated by lantern slides by Prof. Fowler.

The lecture will be given on the 7th of November, and is to be free.
Mr. Will has been secured by the Wisconsin State forestry commission to deliver a series of lectures in this state.

TRADE BODIES TO MEET SAME NIGHT

The regular meeting of the La Crosse Board of Trade will be held on Tuesday, Nov. 5th, the same evening upon which the committee on the La Crosse Manufacturer's and Jobber's Union is to hold another session, to decide upon plans for increasing the consumption of local goods.

It is not known which meeting will have the hall.

OFFICIALS HELP CARRY CRATES

When the heavy crates of steel fixtures for the new city clerk's vault arrived yesterday it was found necessary for Janitor Steve Kaiser to call for "volunteers." He soon succeeded in enticing two of the officials from their duties, namely Comptroller Will J. Fries and Tax Commissioner Joseph W. Frisch, and with their assistance they finally managed to get the heavy crates into the city hall.

MAKE IT UNANIMOUS

Active work in the presidential campaign of Senator La Follette has begun, and every republican should assist in furthering the program so far as is in his power. That La Follette will carry the state and get the delegation is sure, and there is nothing to be gained by opposition, while if the thing is done harmoniously and unanimously, something will be added to the importance of Wisconsin in the national convention of a party in which it has heretofore had no greater honor than to vote, "Me too."

With his own delegation solid behind him, Senator La Follette will have to be reckoned with in the convention of his party. That he will have delegations from some other states seems certain. There will be delegations instructed for Roosevelt, which will rebel when the time to "swing to Taft" comes. There will be scattering delegates with sufficient strength to round up their fellows when the scramble begins.
That post-card vote of the Chicago Tribune, in which La Follette was second to Taft, although La Fol-lette's name was not mentioned among the candidates on the card, meant something. One would like to know what the result of that vote would have been had La Follette's name appeared among those of the suggested candidates.

Wisconsin, even stalwart Wisconsin, has nothing to gain by growling and fussing. The outcome will be the same. Only, "Wisconsin in harmony for La Follette," will sound much better than, "Wisconsin for La Follette, stalwarts again beaten in fierce political battle."

WHAT ROOSEVELT SHOULD DO

The Milwaukee Free Press discusses the idea that President Roosevelt may seek a seat in the senate after his retirement from the presidency, and some reasons said to have been given for him why he will not do so. It says:

"There are reasons why the president does not care to be senator, and they are given for him, not by him. Occasions might arise in which he would be placed in an embarrassing position when he would feel called upon to criticize the acts of some of his predecessors in the office of president, and he would avoid the necessity. Occasions might also arise in which unfriendly senators would criticize the Roosevelt administration—which would also

MEN OF NOTE

J. Ogden Armour

Jonathan Ogden Armour, the millionaire capitalist and packer, was born in Milwaukee on Nov. 11th, 1863, and was the son of Philip Danforth and Malvina Belle Armour.
He was educated at private institutions and finally was entered at Yale University but on the urgent request of his father he returned to Chicago to assist his father in his rapidly growing commercial enterprises. Young Armour at once showed marked business capacity and built up an enormous fortune.
He married Miss Lolita Sheldon of New York city.

make it awkward and unpleasant for him.

"Come to look at the proposition that an ex-president should go into congress at all, there is nothing attractive in it. The presidency ought to be his last public office. If he leaves a good record in that office he ought never to spoil it or make it common by attempting to administer another, and inferior one. If he has been a failure in it he had better remain in quiet retirement after leaving it."

As to what an ex-president should do, the Free Press feels that the course taken by Grover Cleveland is as near right, and as apt to have public approval, as any.

However, there is some doubt about the logic of this position.
Grover Cleveland lived a happy, healthy life after his retirement, saying now and then some sage thing that may have had a good effect in shaping public opinion, doing a good deal of fishing, and assuming toward his own life an attitude indicating that he regarded its functions, beyond enjoyment, as fulfilled.

That is what it is suggested Theodore Roosevelt might do. He will not, for he is a man of action to whom such an existence is impossible.
Nor do we believe he should follow such a course. Man has not done his full duty unless he exacts from his powers all the good there is in them, to the end. Cleveland had more excuse than would Roosevelt for "lying down," for he was older.
Roosevelt was 49 years old yesterday, he is in his prime. Indeed, it is doubtful if he has reached his greatest capacity, for experience is building him up every day. Certainly he is more potent than he was when he took his oath of office a brief space back.

Upon Roosevelt, more than on the ordinary man, there is imposed an obligation to do things. He was given the ten talents, nor should he hide any of them in a restful existence during his ablest years. The United States needs every man of his class, needs them now as never before. There is work ahead for the president, and it is not unlikely that in the senate there is presented to him his greatest opportunity.

The Merchants' association can afford to lend its best efforts to the support of Mr. Ekers' effort to secure railroad connections with Trempealeau valley, which might as well be in China, so far as intercourse with La Crosse is concerned, unless the train schedules are re-arranged.

Cudahy, packer king, says he was misquoted when he was represented as saying that meat will be cheaper.
Of course! How stupid not to have recognized the impossibility of such a statement coming from Mr. Cudahy!

Electrical Inspector Martin may find grim amusement in the reflection that he is not the original electric light joke in this city.

With the conclusion of the Von Moltke case Mr. Hartje resumes an air of confidence and rushes again into print.

Don't jump at conclusions unless you are in training.

SPOTLIGHTS

Dougherty Stock Co.
The La Crosse theater had a good house last night to witness the production of the "Game of Life," a drama of New York life. It was well liked and gave the actors of the Dougherty Stock company ample opportunity to display their versatility.
The specialties between acts, the illustrated songs and the moving pictures were features. Special mention may be made of Burd Bertram, as the "Dutch Girl," and Wm. Stanford's conglomeration of singing and woden shoe dancing. Both of these acts are of headline vaudeville class. Tonight the great feature play "La Belle Marie," with an entire new list of specialties, will be presented.

"The Prince of Pilsen."

Composers of comic opera who do noble service in adding to the sum total of popular musical knowledge often are specialists, the nature of whose work excludes them from general interest and appreciation. It is not so with Gustav Luders, the author of the music of "The Prince of Pilsen," who is not alone a composer of more than national repute, but a broadly cultured, original minded and an enlightened spirit, and a master of musical expression.
This play comes to La Crosse on Thursday, Nov. 7.

Luders calls for recognition as a maker of melody as well as a framer of librettos of merit. He is an artist in musical expression, a composer with a distinct style and a great gift for musical form. His tastes and thorough grasp of melody are all finely in evidence in every comic opera that emanates from his tunefully fertile soul. Take his opera—"The Prince of Pilsen"—to be sung here soon—it abounds in melodies that are marked with rare and pleasurable musical personality.

In the language of a friend, "a German by race, a Viennese by culture, an American in heart," he furnishes another illustration of that strain of the lighter musical genius which seems like a compensatory gift to the once poor orchestral leader for his earlier buffetings at the hand of fate.

In his "Pilsen" opera are two numbers—"The Message of the Violet," and "Pictures in Smoke"—that will live long after the popular composer has passed away. They are so positively idyllic they make plain a reason for the enthusiastic admiration they have aroused. None of the present day writers of lighter music have quite caught their charm. In a sense, their tuneful beauty is only equalled by the "Letter Song," in "La Perle," and "Say to Him," in "Le Grande Duchesse," opera bouffes by the late Jacques Offen-bach, at one time the most popular of French composers.

AN ISLAND TO DEFEND WASH-INGTON.

(Baltimore American.)

There is no other point of the Chesapeake Bay area from which a defense against an invading fleet could be so effectively made as at the very entrance of the great estuary. As it is eleven miles across from Cape Charles to Cape Henry, the shore batteries on either side of the bay would be at too long a range in case of a quick dash by an enemy's ships to deliver an opposing argument that would be surely and beyond the possibility of a doubt effective. The scheme of building an island midway between the capes, upon which modern fortifications will be placed, when brought to realization will constitute a defense for the entire Chesapeake region and will render the entrance to the bay and by any craft, great or small, bent on a warlike mission, an extremely hazardous undertaking.

Secretary of War Taft urged the importance of constructing such a defense upon the attention of the last congress. Some technical difficulties with regard to the acquisition of land rights by the government which existed have been removed, and there is nothing to prevent the plan advocated by the Secretary of War being adopted with promptitude.

ENGLISH DIPLOMACY

(Indianapolis News)

Leaving Germany apart, there seems to be a circle of friendly relations of which England is the center and great impulse that includes all Europe. Surely in this work of recent years and months is to be seen diplomatic accomplishment on a great scale. It gives point to the fact that there are no greater diplomats in the world than the English. Because of the John Bull idea we are accustomed to associate force and bluster and blundering with Great Britain. There is all that, but all the time and under all circumstances there is no people on the earth more deft in diplomacy and quicker at making the right combination at the right time than the English. In her absence. Our traditional suspicion of foreign alliances or formal understandings, which seem to our sense to spell entanglement, has kept us out.

MIGHT AS WELL HAVE SEA
THEATRES.

The theatrical influence permeates modern life so largely nowadays that it is just as well to accept the establishment of theatrics on shipboard without murmuring. The ocean voyage, in other days, meant perfect rest. The man of business left his cares for the time of his voyage when he went on shipboard.
Now wireless telegraphy keeps him continually in touch with his business correspondents on both sides of the ocean, and a marine daily newspaper keeps his mind on the fluctuations of stocks and bonds, and the tumult of the world of business.
He might as well have the theater thrown in.

JUST LIFE

The Star Performer.

"You oughta go 'n see the Beshoo this week," said the young man who smoked cigarettes. "They got a guy down there who is a peach. He imitated a whole orchestra, an' he's good at it. You'd think there was an orchestra playin' in the house, and he only has one instrument."

So following the advice of the young man we dug up enough for a ten cent seat and prepared for the treat. The attractions come and went, and finally the great imitator appeared with his single instrument.
The sounds of a first class orchestra floated out over the house, and it was truly marvelous.

But the fact was there was no imitation.
Kreutz's orchestra was playing the accompaniment.

Listeners make the tongue wag stronger.

FASHION HINTS

(By May Mantion.)

5808 Auto or Rain Coat, 34 to 42 bust.

In these days of many autos and the numberless trips taking therein, no woman's wardrobe is quite complete without such a loose wrap as this one. It can be slipped on over any gown; it is perfectly comfortable, it serves both for rain and for fair weather, and, in addition to all these practical uses, it is cut in a distinctly smart and satisfactory manner. The model is made from shower proof covert cloth stitched with being silk, but all the many looming materials of the season are appropriate. Many of them have the rain-proof finish which renders them doubly desirable, but even when this does not exist they are apt to resist light rains with success. Cheviot and homespuns are admirable for the early season, while later heavier materials will be found desirable, and there are a great many attractive double face cloths that make most satisfactory wraps for real cool weather.

The coat is made with fronts and side fronts, and backs, the center-back seam giving an especially and altogether graceful effect, while the side-front seams, that extend to the shoulders, are always becoming.
There is a flat roll-over collar at the neck, there are convenient patch pockets arranged on the side-fronts, and the plain coat sleeves are of just the correct size for both fashion and comfort.

The quantity of material required for the medium size is 8 yards 27, 5 yards 44 or 4 1/2 yards 52 inches wide.

The pattern 5803 is cut in sizes for a 34, 36, 38, 40 and 42 inch bust measure and will be mailed to any address by the Fashion Department of this paper on receipt of ten cents. (If in haste send an additional two cent stamp for letter postage which insures more prompt delivery.)

That Law Again.

For miles and miles the through passenger train has plodded along in the wake of the slow freight. The travelers grow irksome and even petulant.

"Conductor," says one of the boldest of them, "why do you not get that freight to take a siding while we go by it?"

"Under the new Hepburn law," explained the conductor, sadly, "we are not allowed to pass anything."

GIANT'S
STRENGTH

BY BASIL KING

Copyrighted by Harper & Bros.)

She staggered, regained her footing on the polished floor, staggered again, and, recoiling towards the pedestal of the statue, fell. It was an accident, the mere miscalculation of his iron strength, but as she reeled and went down, Trafford thrilled with a sense of satisfaction. The very brutality of the act was an assuagement to the pain of his outraged adoration. At the turning of the stairway he glanced at her as she lay. Let her lie! She was the one being in the world against whose bow he had no power of defence, and she had struck him.

He passed out to his room, and rang for his secretary. Two minutes later he was dictating letters on business. It was partly an instinct for work, partly the impulse to seek refuge in the commonplace from this upheaval in his affections. He had not reached the point of considering the situation in its practical light, practical man though he was. All he could think of now, all there was room for his big intelligence, was the fact that his little girl, the one creature on earth whom he loved with an idolatrous tenderness, had taken a step which, as she must have known beforehand, would create a cruel breach between them. No matter how it turned out now, the fact that she had done it would be there.

She, too, in her room, was thinking in the same strain of him.
When he had thrust her from him the action had taken her by surprise.
Not even when she felt she seized its full significance. It was only when she caught his merciless glance, as he passed up the stairway, that she understood the extent of the indignity he had put upon her.

For a second or two she lay quite still. She pressed her cheek on the cold, polished wood, drinking in her humiliation. When she dragged herself up, two hectic spots were blazing on her cheeks, while in her soft eyes there was a light that made them curiously like her father's. As she marched up-stairs her head was high, and her step firm, with a determination altogether new to her. It came over her then that she could never be again the clinging, dependent Paula Trafford of the past.
Whatever she did in the end, she knew that, outside herself, there would be no stay sure enough to lean on. She must be, in future, her own guide, her own judge, the arbitrator of her own destiny. She felt like a child, putting forth into the night alone. Between leaving her father's door and reaching her room Winship's there was a dark, unknown road to travel, but she must face it. It was difficult to believe that her father's protecting love would not be there. She was so used to it that to be without it was like being without shelter. Instinctively she yearned to stretch out her hands to him again, but the impulse died in the recollection that he had struck her down.

It was late in the afternoon when Trafford dismissed his secretary and summoned his wife, George, and Laura. They filed into his book-lined office, as children before a master. Mrs. Trafford sat near him, by the desk; George and Laura farther off. Through all the sweetness of the afternoon, Trafford's thoughts towards the definite step to be taken.

"Now tell me about this affair," he said, briefly. "Tell me everything."

Mrs. Trafford trembling and responding, recounted what she knew of the first meeting of Paula and Winship at Monte Carlo, and of the progress of their acquaintance.

"I shall never forgive myself," Paula sobbed, as she brought her statement to an end.

"You never ought to," he said, with the shortness habitual to him in moments of excitement. "You knew, as no one else did, what those people brought on me. You knew how I had to fight them, and how, because I beat them, public opinion has hounded me as if I were a criminal.
They take me for a heart of brass. Indifferent to attack of that sort, but you knew better. And yet you've permitted this!"

"Paul, I'm very ill," she pleaded.
"Spare me!"

"I do spare you. If I didn't spare you, I should say much more."

"Aunt Julia is less to blame than I," George broke out, with a touch of indignation in his voice. "It was I who told Paula all about the Win-ships."

"There was no harm in her knowing that," Trafford said, quickly.
"There was nothing I wanted to hide.
You didn't thrust her into their arms."

"No; but I let her go. I knew she felt that in some way we had wronged them—"

"Then, by God! she'll learn to the contrary," Trafford cried, bringing his fist down on the desk.

"I knew she felt that," George went on, "but I laughed at her. I didn't take her seriously. When she talked of giving them a million dollars in restitution, I joked about it, and told her the easiest way for her to do it was by marrying the fellow."

"Then you were a damn fool."

"I know it," George agreed, humbly. "I'm only showing that I was more to blame than Aunt Julia."

"I don't see anything to be gained, George," Laura said, in her most mildly reasonable tone, "by trying to apportion out degrees of blame, where, perhaps, there is no blame at all. Paula is of age and independent. She's her own mistress in every sense. Neither you nor I had any control over her, and Aunt Ulla very little. It was Uncle Trafford's wish. That's the way he's brought her up."

"I trusted her," Trafford broke in, savagely.

"Naturally," Laura agreed. "So did we. I should trust her again. I must tell you, Uncle Trafford, dear, that it was I who sent Paula to have that portrait done."

"Oh, you did, did you? Yes, I remember her telling me so. Then all I can say of you is that—"

"You see," Laura pursued, calmly, "after the conversation at Monte Carlo, when George told her about the Winships, and how they had lost their money, and so on, I could see that she was very much distressed. It was the first time she had ever come face to face with the idea that if one man grows rich it often happens that another must grow poor. It rather pained her. I tried to show her that, with just so much money in the world, if wealth flows very much into one pocket, it has to ebb a good deal from another."

"What's that got to do with it?"
Trafford demanded.

"It gave her a more reasonable idea of business. It helped her to see that the Winships might lose their property, and that you might get it, and yet that the fault might be none of yours. What she felt was pity—nothing more, and nothing less. You see, Uncle Trafford," she continued, edging her chair a little nearer the desk, "Paula is more a child than a woman. It is possible for any one to live here on earth and keep a soul more spotless from the things that the rest of us have to know and understand. She isn't a man of business, like you and George. She isn't even a woman of business, like Aunt Trafford and me. She doesn't reason like the rest of us. She can't. The fact is, her nature is limited; any one can see it who's ever lived with her.
There are just three things of which she's capable: love for what's good, pity for what's suffering, and pardon for what's wrong."

"That's so," George corroborated, strongly.

"Yes, it is," Mrs. Trafford added, with a heavy sigh. "It's true, every word of it, even if I am her mother."

Roosevelt Luck.

We thought him idling
Time away,
And sympathized with him
Each day.

At times we thought
Him in despair,
And that he hadn't Seen a bear.

We thought his hunt
Was falling flat;
That game was scarce
And all of that.

But now we learn,
That naught he missed,
And of his trophies,
Here's the list:

Three bears brought down,
Six deer were killed;
One possum and
One wild cat stilled.

One turkey wild,
Twelve squirrels, too,
That made a most Delicious stew.

On top of this Just add one duck;
That reads a lot Like Roosevelt luck.

Quinsy, Sore Throat, Neuralgia of the Nerves

MRS. WM. VAN GAASBECK.

A remarkable cure was effected in the case of Mrs. Wm. Van Gaasbeek, of 14½ Foxhall Avenue, Kingston, New York, who suffered a long time from Quinsy, Sore Throat and Neuralgia. After all other medicines failed, Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey made a permanent cure.

In a recent letter Mrs. Van Gaasbeek wrote:

"I have been a great sufferer for a long time from quinsy sore throat and neuralgia of the nerves. I had tried almost everything but nothing seemed to help me. A friend advised me to try Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, and after taking a half dozen bottles I was cured. Have never had any symptoms of the disease since. I recommend it to any one suffering from these diseases."

Thousands of unsolicited letters of gratitude like this of Mrs. Van Gaasbeek are received from grateful patients who are anxious to extol the merits of this great life-saver—Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

is an absolutely pure distillation of malted grain; great care being used to have every kernel thoroughly malted, thus destroying the germ of the seed and producing a predigested liquid food in the form of a pale malt, which is the most effective tonic stimulant and invigorator known to science; softened by warmth and moisture its palatability and freedom from injurious substances renders it so that it can be retained by the most sensitive stomach.

It is recognized everywhere as the unfailing specific for the cure of consumption, nervousness, typhoid, malaria, every form of stomach trouble, diseases of the throat and lungs, and all run down and weakened conditions of the brain and body. It restores youthful vigor to the old and maintains the health and strength of the young. It nourishes and feeds the vital forces. It is a form of food already digested. It is prescribed by doctors of all schools, is used in the leading hospitals of the world, and is recognized as a family medicine everywhere. It is absolutely pure.

CAUTION.—When you ask your druggist, grocer or dealer for Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey be sure you get the genuine. It is the only absolutely pure medicinal malt whiskey and is sold in sealed bottles only; never in bulk. Price $1.00. Look for the trade-mark, the "Old Chemist," on the label, and make sure the seal over the cork is unbroken. Illustrated medical booklet and doctor's advice free, Duffy Malt Whiskey Co., Rochester, N. NO TROUBLE IN SWITCHMEN'S CASE

UNION PRESIDENT EXPECTS PEACEABLE SETTLEMENT

WAGE DEMANDS PRESENTED

Conference Is Still on in St. Paul With Likelihood of Demands Being Granted.

General committees of the switchmen employed by the railroads operating out of La Crosse yesterday called on the general managers at St. Paul and presented their demands for the year beginning Nov. 1. The conference is still on, but it is not probable that anything will develop for several days.

"We expect a peaceable settlement," said James T. Hawley, national president of the union. "Eight hours a day is not included in our demands, as has been reported, but that may enter into the question in so far as the railroads may want to make such an arrangement for the sake of economy. We ask for time and a half for overtime, holidays and Sunday, and rather than pay that the railroads may want to make it an eight-hour day. Some of our men are working as much as fifteen hours a day at present."

For the present negotiations will be conducted between the general committees and general managers of the lines, although after more progress has been made the scene may be shifted to Chicago.

NORTH SIDE NOT TO GET ONE NOW

The plan of establishing a city mission on the north side has been abandoned, but temporarily, however. It has been looked into by the members of the Mission down town and they do not think that it would be advisable to start one at present as their force in La Crosse is almost too small to be divided. It may be decided, later in the winter, to establish a branch of the south side mission and run it as such but nothing definite has been done so far. Every effort will be made on the part of those interested in the mission work to find some work for the Rev. A. Velle in order to keep him and his family in La Crosse. In the meantime he will be recognized as a part of the outside mission. Mr. Velle's twelve year old son, Oscar, will also take part in the meetings and according to those who have heard some of his talks he is a wonderful boy. He can quote scripture and his services in mission work are inestimable.

Beware of the man whose debts don't worry him. He would steal your umbrella if he saw it in the vestibule of a church.

FISHING SPOILED BY THE SEINERS

NORTH SIDE SPORTSMEN ARE HIGHLY INCENSED

GAME FISH NOT RESTORED

Law Allows Dredging of River, But Its Restrictions are Not Followed by the Unscrupulous.

Despite the closing of the fishing season North side fishermen are incensed over what they call the killing of all good fishing in this vicinity. It is the claim of the majority that the sloughs and streams in this vicinity have been seined by unscrupulous fishermen to such an extent that it is almost impossible to go out and get enough fish to pay for the afternoon's trouble. The point upon which their intention is based is that the men can seine the streams and still have the full protection of the law. The law gives them the privilege of seining the streams for carp, catfish, pickerel and other small fish with the exception of bass, pike, and a few other game fish. Those that are allowed by the law to be caught, are shipped to Milwaukee and other large cities in large numbers. It is the claim, however, that the men do not confine themselves to the fish that are specified but that pike and bass are also pulled out. Whether or not these are shipped away is not known.

Places in the sloughs along Black river that were, a few years ago, the best fishing grounds in this vicinity have been so thoroughly seined that little is left.

In all probability some steps will be taken to put a stop to the present state of affairs, but when and by whom is not known.

"Y" TO GIVE A HALLOWE'EN PARTY

A Halloween party will be given at the Y. M. C. A. Thursday evening for the students and young men of the city. A program has been prepared and refreshments will be served. The work of the winter will be outlined and there will be an address by an able speaker. One of the features of the evening's entertainment will be a basketball game between the Y. M. C. A. team and some adversary to be chosen later by Secretary Ash.

MARTIN CRAMER BACK AGAIN

Returns From Work on Pacific Coast Extension—Operations Along Improved Ideas

"By May 1, 1908, you will be able to travel to Butte, Mont., over the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul road, and not long thereafter to Seattle and Tacoma," said Martin Cramer, passenger agent of the road, who has just passed through La Crosse en route to his home in Milwaukee after an inspection of the work on the Pacific coast extension.

How Steel is Put Down.
"The busiest section lies between Butte, Mont., and the western boundary of Idaho. Milwaukee made steam shovels are cutting through the country ahead of the grading crews. Steel is being laid up to the eastern border of Montana, and the roadbed westward seems to be ready for rails. At various points along the route there are millions of ties piled up waiting to be taken out by the trainload. Rails are supplied from various points, and thus far there has been no difficulty in securing steel.

"There are many steel bridges to be erected, and these are assembled as far as possible and dumped in convenient places awaiting the arrival of erection crews. Track laying is pursued in an advanced form, the rails being laid from the end of a train on ties already in place. These are quickly spiked into place, and the cars move on over the steel put down a moment before. From a point near Harlow, Mont., to Lombard, Mont., the line already is in operation, it being the Montana Central purchased by the Milwaukee road.

Bad Grades Are Overcome.
"The route of the Milwaukee road was, of course, chosen with an eye to avoiding bad grades, and the worst along the entire line will not be greater than 2 per cent, which is lower than the easiest of other roads. On my return over the Canadian Pacific I noticed one bad mountain grade which made it necessary to use two locomotives at the head of the train, two in the center and two in the rear.

"There will be something over a mile of tunnels. A great deal of blasting is being done to avoid the snaky turns of a mountainous country and wherever possible a corner is knocked off to reduce the number of curves.

"Extensive roadbed work has been done right in Seattle and Tacoma. Seattle is undoubtedly one of the greatest cities of this country, and to a person who never has been there the stories of its business interests, marvelous growth and that spirit of hustle seems unbelievable."

Mr. Cramer visited Seattle, Tacoma, Spokane, Vancouver and other cities. The influx of Tindus to the British Columbia city, he says, has greatly exercised Canadians. An effort is being made to exclude the women as a partial means of keeping down the population of this race, but nevertheless a surprising number of births among the people have been reported.

SHOP MEN LAID OFF

MILWAUKEE ROAD IS RETRENCHING

Dubuque Employees Suffer From Money Stress

Trainmen on the Dubuque division of the Milwaukee road bring word to the north side that the employees of the coach shops of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul shops in Dubuque, were surprised Saturday afternoon when they were informed that there was to be a layoff of a part of the force. When the day's work was over the men were informed that fifty percent, or twenty-five of the fifty men employed in the coach department, had received notices that they were longer needed and it is said that more men, this time from the locomotive department are to be let out.

Was a Great Surprise.
The action of the officials in giving half of the men in the coach shops layoff, after just recently putting on a night shift, came as a great surprise to the men and for a short time they could hardly believe that it was true. They had expected work all winter and to be laid off just as the winter season was coming on was most unexpected said one of the men laid off. "The action of the officials came like lightning from a clear sky. When I asked one of the officials what it meant, he said those were orders which were received from Milwaukee and that he understood that portion of the force in the locomotive department was to be laid off."

Others state that the action of the officials is due to the eastern financial situation.

GOLD DUST IN STRANGE TRUNK

Due to the fact that a colored woman hair dresser got by mistake a trunk belonging to a woman missionary, some one is likely to make a rich find at the unclaimed baggage sale which will be held by the Great Northern at St. Paul Friday and Saturday. Both the missionary's trunk and the colored woman's trunk are among the batch to be sold by auction, and from the fact that the owner of the latter brought in a claim for $1,600 against the company for the loss of the trunk there is a prospect that somebody will strike it rich at the sale.

The hair dresser asserted that these is in the trunk $800 in gold dust and $500 in Alaskan curios. From her conduct there is strong indication that the trunk does contain something of value. She camped on it on her voyage from Alaska. Besides running a hair dressing parlor at Keller, Alaska, she had an interest in three claims. She took the steamship Newshy at Keller, but on the voyage the boat began leaking and put in at Valdez. After staying there for repairs a couple of weeks the captain ordered everybody on board again, but ruled that no trunks could be taken along, on account of the condition of the steamer. They were to be picked up on the following trip. The hair dresser, however, said that she had to take her trunk along on account of the fact that she had $800 in gold dust and curios in it. The captain consented.

After landing at Seattle the hair dresser checked her trunk to Salt Lake City, but the trunk delivered was not hers. The trunk in Salt Lake was ordered shipped to St. Paul, as it was found that it belonged to a missionary.

The missionary started from San Francisco to Alaska by way of Seattle. She arrived just in time to make connection with the Newshy and Seattle, and the promises was that her trunk would follow on the next trip.

The colored woman was positive that it was her trunk that she checked out of Seattle. Later she had to confess that she might have made a mistake. She brought suit for $1,600, but as she failed to furnish bonds the legal proceedings were dropped.

Later investigations showed that the colored woman got the missionary's trunk at Valdez. Her own was left at that point, because it was later discovered there and brought to St. Paul. The hair dresser evidently has gone back to her parlors and wigging in the North, as the officials of the road have been unable to communicate with her for some time. They have been unable to find any trace of the missionary.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

Is a non-secret, non-alcoholic and most potent invigorating, restorative tonic and strengthening nervine, especially adapted to woman's peculiar requirements by an experienced specialist in the treatment of her diseases.

Nursing mothers will find "Favorite Prescription" especially valuable in sustaining their strength and promoting an abundant nourishment for the child. Expectant mothers too will find it a priceless boon to prepare the system for baby's coming and to render the ordeal comparatively easy and painless.

Over-burdened women in all stations in life whose vigor has been undermined by exacting social duties, over-work, frequent bearing of children, will find "Favorite Prescription" the greatest strength giver ever employed. It can do no harm in any state or condition of the female system.

Delicate, nervous, weak women, who suffer from frequent headaches, backache, dragging-down distress low down in the abdomen, or from painful or irregular monthly periods, gnawing or distressed sensation in stomach, dizzy or faint spells, see imaginary specks or spots floating before eyes, have disagreeable, pelvic catarrhal drain, ulceration, prolapsus, anteversion, retroversion, or other displacements of womanly organs from weakness of parts, will, whether they experience many or only a few of the above symptoms, find relief and, generally, a permanent cure by using faithfully and fairly persistently Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

This world-famed specific for woman's weaknesses and peculiar ailments is a pure glyceric extract of the choicest native, medicinal roots without a drop of alcohol in its make-up. All its ingredients are printed in plain English on its bottle-wrapper and attested under oath. Dr. Pierce thus invites the fullest investigation of his formula knowing that it will be found to contain only the best agents known to the most advanced medical science of all the different schools of practice for the cure of all woman's peculiar weaknesses and ailments.

Dr. Pierce's Lotion Tablets and Antiseptic Suppositories may also be used with great advantage conjointly with the use of the "Favorite Prescription" in all cases of ulceration, and in pelvic catarrh. They cost only 25 cents a box each, at drug stores or, sent by mail, post-paid on receipt of price in stamps by Dr. Pierce whose address is given below.

If you want to know more about the composition and professional endorsement of the "Favorite Prescription," send postal card request to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., for his free booklet treating of same.

You can't afford to accept as a substitute for this remedy of known composition a secret nostrum of unknown composition. Don't do it.

They cleanse, invigorate and regulate stomach, liver and bowels, curing biliousness and constipation. Little sugar-coated granules—easy to take as candy.

One of the advantages of Grape-Nuts food is that it is pre-digested in the process of manufacture.

The starch contained in the wheat and barley is transformed into grape-sugar by exactly the same method as this process is carried on in the human body, that is, by the use of moisture and long exposure to moderate warmth, which grows the diastase in the grains, then long baking completes the remarkable change from starch to grape-sugar.

Therefore, the most delicate stomach can handle quickly absorbed into the parts of it going directly to build and nourish the brain and nerve centres. "There's

GEN. BOARDMAN NOTIFIES CAPTAINS

Targets Must Be Forwarded To Madison

C. R. Boardman, adjutant of the Wisconsin National guard, has sent out a circular letter to all captains in the state, and announcing that the target season will close on Thursday. Company commanders are requested to forward score books to Madison on the day following.

Captain Rawlinson of Company M and Captain Schulze of Company B, each have received a copy of the orders and will return the score sheets as requested.

The decorations for "Course C" firing are awarded on these scores, each score having been certified to by a commissioned officer before being entered in the record book.

Company and regimental figures of merit and individual classification will be calculated from the book.
More interest has been shown in range work in the Badger guard this year than ever before, largely because the competition between companies and regiments has become greater and also because more ammunition was allowed for range work than ever before.

It should at this time be remembered that the fowls will wait food next winter. Store up a supply of onions, carrots, mangolds and cabbages for that purpose.

CITY NEWS

STREETS DIRTY—Many citizens complain that street cleaners have not spent much time in the paved districts in the residence portion of the city this season. Though these streets were regularly cleaned last year they have been visited by the rubbish carts only a couple of times this summer.

PUT BOATS AWAY—A number of local launch owners have already put their boats in winter quarters.
Boathouses which are so situated as to be in danger from the outgoing ice in the spring are being moved into Black river or behind some obstruction so that they will not be damaged by the tons of grinding ice cakes which come through the channel in the spring.

DRAIN ENGINES—A matter which is now occupying the attention of launch owners is the draining of their engine cylinders of water after each run, when the boat is left for the night. As the weather grows cold, if the water is left around the cylinders, as in the summer time, the water is apt to freeze and crack the cylinders.

MACCABEES DANCE—The Ladies of the Maccabees gave a dance in the Travelers' hall last evening.

COMPLETING TRACK—The new tracks of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul from a point south of the wagon bridge to the new Listman mill are being rapidly completed, a big gang of workmen being busy bolting the rails together, and leveling up the track.

MOVE LIVERY—The Singer skiff livery will be put in its winter quarters within a short time. All the skiff business that remains is the few fishermen who spend the days on the nearby dams fishing for pike, and most of these have their own boats.

BUILD FOUNDATION—The concrete foundation for the new building being added to the plant of the Langdon-Boyd Packing company is being put in by the mould system, as was used in building the foundation for the addition to the Listman mill.

KNIGHTS INITIATE—The John P. Linton lodge No. 27, Knights of Pythias, held initiatory work in the second degree last night.

ELKS' DANCE—The B. P. O.
Elks will give one of their semi-monthly social parties and dances at the Elks' club Friday evening of this week.

LUMBER YARD SOLD—The Union Lumber company of Winona has sold its yards and stock of lumber to the Standard Lumber company, which will make Winona the principal distributing yard for southern Minnesota. R. F. Hanover of Wausau, Wis., will be manager.

MOVEMENT OF BOATS—The government fishery boat Curlew, went down river Monday.

INSTALLING FRONT—Carpenters are busy at work this week installing the front in the new Elliott-Loeffler hotel on Pearl street, between Second and Third streets. The exterior work is now about finished and the plasterers expect to start at work next week.

FLOAT TO NEW ORLEANS—A party of Dubuque young men have launched a boat in which they expect to float down river to the Gulf of Mexico. The men, four in number, left yesterday on their trip and expect to arrive at New Orleans about January 1. Some of the party made the trip six years ago under conditions exactly similar, and it was their great enjoyment of it which prompted a second expedition.

SCHOOL PRIZE—J. C. Johnson's school in Shelby, took first prize at the recent La Crosse county fair for having the largest and best school exhibit.

FORMER RESIDENT DIES—
News of the death of Mrs. G. A. Walter, formerly Mrs. Jessie Messenger, the daughter of Mrs. Warren B.
Clisby, has been received. While residing in La Crosse, Mrs. Walter lived at West avenue and Vine street.

ENTERTAINS LADIES—Mrs. M.
R. Johnson, 1743 Pine street, is entertaining the ladies of the Brotherhood of American Yeomen at a coffee this afternoon.

MARINE INSURANCE—While the insurance on licensed steamers expires with the official close of navigation, insurance policies granted on small boats and launches are in force the year 'round, winter as well as summer.

ty convention at Battle Creek, Mich., provided free to the delegates at the famous Battle Creek sanitarium, by ic "purity" worker.

SPECIALIST PRESCRIBES CUTICURA

Famous French Specialist on Diseases of the Skin Prescribes Cuticura as the Most Effective Remedy Known to Him, Charging as His Fee 100 Francs ($20).

ALSO PRESCRIBED IN HOSPITAL SAINT LOUIS

"Gentlemen: You may be pleased to learn that a patient suffering from an irritation of the skin, caused by motor-ing, on consulting a noted physician in Paris, for which a fee of one hundred francs (twenty dollars) was charged, was advised to use Cuticura, which advice, although received with astonishment, was followed and resulted in a perfect cure." (Signed) Lewis Gower, 123 Broadway, New York, U. S. A., December 16, 1906.

French physicians, particularly those making a specialty of the treatment of skin diseases, have for many years regarded Cuticura as a specific and have prescribed it freely. It enjoys the rare distinction of being prescribed in the Hospital Saint Louis, Paris, one of the largest and most famous hospitals in the world devoted exclusively to the treatment of diseases of the skin.

CIVIL SERVICE IS SOURCE OF SCRAPS

STATE BOARD GOES AFTER OFFICE HOLDERS HARD

"Extra" Compensation of State Official Hired on Salary to be Tested in Hearing.

(By Fred L. Holmes.)

MADISON, Wis., Oct. 30.—(Special.)—The Wisconsin civil service system is maintaining its reputation as the champion source of bickering among state officials. In the last forty-eight hours two of these three matters effecting the service have come to a crux, with the usual results. These three matters will come before the commission late today.

Attempt of state game warden's office to make state pay A. C. Titus, assistant attorney general, $200 extra for services in compiling the state game laws. The civil service commission is resisting the payment of this sum because it holds that Mr. Titus, being a regular employee of the state at a salary of $3,000 a year, cannot do additional work—apart from that of his department—for extra pay, despite the fact that this work was done while the assistant attorney general was on a vacation. The board is seeking recognition of its alleged right to control the appointment of regular and extra men in any branch of the state service. Mr. Titus was appointed to do the work by the state game warden.

Alleged attempt by State Treasurer A. H. Dahl to override the civil service law and return favor for political service by changing the name or title of a position and not its duties; thereby "abolishing" the position in order that he might appoint another to the place. 1. P. Leigh of Milwaukee, mail clerk, was removed because the title of his job was changed to that of "correspondence" clerk and William Pugh of Fond du Lac appointed in his stead. It is said Pugh will probably be obliged to resign, which will be a double hardship by reason of the fact that he resigned a responsible position at Fond du Lac to accept the place here.

Attempt by Game Warden Stone to have the state pay the bills he has incurred for board and lodging while in Madison. As a result of a strenuous kick on the part of the civil service commission, Mr. Stone has been politely told by Attorney General Gilbert that it is neither customary nor proper for the state to pay the household expenses of state officers in Madison, and as a result, Mr. Stone will have to draw his own check for something like $33.

REV. C. N. MOLLER RUN DOWN BY AUTO

had ascertained that he had struck some one, the machine was stopped, about 150 feet away, which shows traveling.

The speed at which the auto was driven, while in a dazed condition, "I didn't see you," exclaimed Falk, when he found that he had struck some one.

Taken to Physician.

The pastor was bundled into the auto, with his bicycle completely demolished, and taken to a repair shop. Then the minister was taken to the offices of Dr. E. A. Guyton, 114 North Fifth street, where the injuries were dressed. Later the Rev. Moller returned to his home, 1220 King street.

"My injuries are not severe, but they are painful," said the Rev. Moller today. "I am badly bruised. I am lame all over, as a result of the accident."

Auto Came From Behind.

"I failed to see the machine approaching, and only knew that an auto was coming up behind me by the lights, which flashed ahead and lighted up the street. When I saw this, I steered my bicycle into the leaves, close to the curb, to be out of harm's way. A moment later, my rear wheel was struck, and I was hurled through the air."

"The next thing I knew, I was on a pile of leaves, and later picked up, I was dazed. The automobile stood about 150 feet away, while the chauffeur returned to me. He said 'I didn't see you.'"

Chauffeur Considerate.

"The chauffeur, Mr. Falk by name took me and the bicycle to a repair shop. He told me to have the machine repaired. The bicycle is a wreck, completely destroyed by the force of the impact. The chauffeur treated me with great kindness."

"My fingers were cut and scratched, while my wrists are sore. I am lame all over. The injuries are not serious, however, and I feel better today."

The accident to the Rev. Moller is the second in the harvest of speeding automobilists this summer. Timothy Lewis was run down at Fourth and Main streets in August, by a machine of the La Crosse Motor Car company.

The Rev. Moller does not know the speed at which the machine was traveling, but believes it was only moderate.

SUES WIMMER FOR DAMAGE TO NAME CAUSED BY ARREST

Arrested on a charge of grand larceny, which carried a sentence of a long term in the state penitentiary on conviction, but discharged at the preliminary hearing, Peter Harter, a town of Greenfield farmer, has started an action against Edward Wimmer, grocer, 628 South Sixth street, for $10,000 damages on the grounds of false arrest. The complaint and summons were served on Wimmer by Under Sheriff John Mohr last night.

Harter alleges that he was arrested on June 14, charged with the larceny of one pig, one red hen, twenty-four dozen eggs, a harness and farm implements, valued at $50, from the farm of the defendant in the town of Greenfield. The alleged theft occurred on March 15.

Immediately upon arrest Harter gave bond in the sum of $50 for his appearance in court. On July 1, the preliminary hearing was held, and Harter was discharged by Judge Brindley.

Harter alleges that his reputation was damaged by publication of the charge and declares Wimmer had no grounds for the arrest. He estimates the damage to his character at $1,000.

The case will be tried at the January term of circuit court.

GROSSCUP INDICTED FOR TROLLEY WRECK

CHARLESTON, Ill., Oct. 30.—Federal Judge Peter S. Grosscup was indicted yesterday afternoon by a Coles county grand jury on a charge of criminal negligence tending to produce manslaughter. Directors Marshall E. Sampson, Arthur W. Underwood and Francis S. Peabody, President E. A. Potter, Superintendent Fred More and Motorman Chas. Bots of the Charleston and Mattoon Interurban line, also were indicted on the same charge.

The indictment came as a sequel to the wreck of Aug. 30 on the interurban line, in which seventeen persons were killed and more than fifty injured. It was the third serious accident on the road within three years, and the officials of the road were blamed. The penalty for involuntary manslaughter, of which they are accused is a penitentiary term of from one to fourteen years.

Richard Spearling of St. Cloud, Minn., a former resident of this city, who for several years was superintendent of the local gas plant and is now general manager of the plant at St. Cloud, is in the city for a few days visiting with relatives and his friends.

Mr. Spearling was connected with the La Crosse Gas and Electric company as superintendent of the local gas plant for many years and built the plant in this city.

After resigning his position he went to St. Cloud, where he erected a similar plant and has since resided in that city as general manager of the gas works.

DUKE OF MINDORO ON TRIAL AGAIN

A. C. Hanson, former "Duke of Mindoro," charged with selling "wet goods" in the town of Farmington, which went dry at the spring election, was placed on trial in county court today for the second time. Peter Gullickson, chairman of the town, the complainant, appeared in person.

This morning a jury was struck, and the case continued until 2 o'clock this afternoon.

PREPARING FOR EAU CLAIRE GAME

Prof. Benezet Takes Squad Out in Spite of the Weather and Puts Boys Through Hard Stunts

The La Crosse high school football squad is now preparing for their championship game with Eau Claire to be played on the latter's grounds next Saturday. Last evening although a drizzling rain fell, Coach Benezet had the team out and put them through hard practice.

The outlook for the game Saturday is very promising for La Crosse. Tourtelotte, who has been out of the game for the past month, owing to a dislocated shoulder, is again in fighting order, and may be depended on in the Eau Claire game, Haley and Jungbluth have overcome their "cons" and will be able to play in Saturday's game and will strengthen the line. The back line will remain about the same. With Shaw and Shirley at the end positions, Eau Claire will have a hard proposition to repeat their work of last Saturday against Chippewa Falls, which team was defeated by the score of 11 to 0.

According to one of the Eau Claire rooters, La Crosse is the only team Eau Claire is afraid of, and at the game with Sparta three weeks ago this Saturday the Eau Claire team sent their coach, Billy Brennan, and their captain, Fred Charles, for details. La Crosse was defeated, but when they meet Eau Claire they will have an entirely different team.

About fifty rooters of La Crosse are intending to accompany the team to Eau Claire.

The Chippewa Falls Independent has the following comment on the Eau Claire-Chippewa Falls game: "The game was fair, the referees from the University of Minnesota rendering impartial decisions throughout. Eau Claire for once was obliged to live up to the rules and everyone passed off harmoniously, everyone leaving the grounds in the best of spirits."

On the result of the game the following was said: "But as luck would have it, Eau Claire won—it was sheer luck that brought them victory, for the Chippewa boys played as good ball as Eau Claire."

ACTOR PAYS AND GETS HIS TRUNK

Alfred E. Reed, the actor, whose trunk and costumes were attached by Constable Louis Ommerberg just as they were about to be shipped from the Milwaukee freight depot Saturday, arrived at the office of Justice C. W. Hunt yesterday morning at 9 o'clock and paid his bill amounting to $10.50 to C. S. Sterling of the Hotel Law, and the attachment was thereby dissolved.

ACTOR'S SUIT IS UP TOMORROW

The case of McLean vs. Reed, the actor, with whom the latter engaged in a fistie encounter at the Milwaukee depot, will come up before Judge Daniels tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock.

CREDITORS GET TWO PER CENT MORE

The creditors of Louis Gilbertson, the former Pearl street shoe dealer, met yesterday afternoon with Referee Baldwin, trustee in bankruptcy, and after some deliberation it was decided that the creditors would be allowed two per cent more upon the claims which they had entered.

They were allowed 8 per cent before, so they now will receive a total of 10 per cent of their claims.

TO BE MARRIED IN NOVEMBER

A marriage license has been taken out by Joseph Walton Losey and Miss Ina Higbee, both prominent in the society circles of this city. Mr. Losey is a son of the late J. W. Losey, while the prospective bride is a daughter of Attorney E. C. Higbee. The wedding will take place Nov. 6th.

NOTICES OF TAX COMMITTEE, OUT

John Kindley, chairman of the assessments committee of the county board of supervisors, today notified County Clerk Charles Rawlinson of the proposed meeting of the committee on Tuesday, Nov. 5. Notices of the meeting have been sent to the county and city members of the board.

LA MON WOMAN IS OUT ON BAIL

Nina La Mon, sentenced to the county jail on a charge of vagrancy for forty days on Saturday, that she might be held pending an investigation into her alleged relations with a gang of thieves, today filed $25 cash bond and was given her release. Attorney A. C. Wolfe has appealed the case to the circuit court for the woman.

APPRECIATION.

EXPECT FEST TO OUTSHINE ST. PAUL

President Theodore H. Behrens, Chicago, who is in the city today the guest of Secretary John L. Utermoehl, while assisting in perfecting the arrangements for the 1908 Saengerfest, stated that at least 690 active singers of which he already heard, were to attend the 1908 Saengerfest from Chicago. About four hundred more will attend from Milwaukee and together they will almost make the Saengerfest alone, aggregating over 1,000 people.

La Crosse officers of the Saengerfest of 1908 are trying to tie with the recent Saengerfest held at St. Paul, which was the largest in the history of the association so far.

Mr. Utermoehl says that he assisted in the Saengerfest which was held twenty years ago, while he was a resident of Fountain City.

President Behrens and local Secretary Utermoehl of the Central society are of the opinion that the La Crosse Saengerfest will surpass the last attendance at the St. Paul celebration by about 250 singers.

A rehearsal was held in the Germania hall last evening at which time a number of ladies entered into the mixed chorus. There will be short addresses by the president and also by the local secretary.

MANY PLANS ON FOR THURSDAY

Young people about the city are beginning to look forward to Halloween which comes next Thursday.

A number of years ago the very fact that Halloween was coming was a sign for the houseowner to take off his gate and watch for the marauders to prevent them from knocking down his woodpile or running away with a wagon, that had been carelessly left in the alley. Although there seemed to be an epidemic of tearing down fences, street crossings and anything else that was handy and the result was that next morning most of the street crossings marauders to prevent them from their original position, and gates, benches, etc., in the trees about the parks and through the streets.

The police department has gotten busy the past few years, however, and put a stop to this foolishness, and now there are usually a number of extra policemen detailed for duty on Halloween night with the result that those who would do damage are careful to make themselves scarce. The custom now is to have parties and suppers as a method of celebrating Halloween night, go about the streets dressed in curious costumes, and to form musical organizations and go about serenading friends. There is probably not a time during the whole year when there are more parties for the young people than on this night.

MAYOR AFTER FAKE BOOK GRAFTERS

Peddlers and canvassers, who have been ordered out of other cities will not find an opportunity available at La Crosse to use the names of the city officials in representing their goods in the future. Mayor Anderson does not intend to permit it.

In the past the La Crosse police have frequently been annoyed by men who have come to this city with various articles, and volumes of books, selling them under pretense of recommendation from the mayor, when, upon investigation, it was found that they had received no recommendation whatever.

Mayor Wendall A. Anderson, having been informed of such work says that any persons who make representations of having received recommendations from him, or of having been authorized by him to make such statements, are impostors, unless they can produce evidence bearing the proper signature.

In the future, the persons called upon are expected to step to the telephone and inform the police department so that the "recommendation work" will be at once discontinued. With this co-operation, the mayor indicates, La Crosse will soon become not only one of the cleanest cities in the country, and feared by criminals, but also by the "grafters" and other confidence men.

MISS NORA BERG SEEKS DAMAGES

The deposition of Mayme Nieland, a stenographer, was taken this morning before Judge Brindley in the suit of Nora Berg, 1108 Division street, against the Tanberg Auto company for $5,000 for alleged injuries received when an automobile tipped over on the embankment to the road near the inter-state fair grounds on July 4. The Berg woman swears her arm was fractured, her jaw broken and she received injuries to her legs and body.

Miss Nieland declared the automobile was going at a rate of 25 miles an hour. When asked how she could tell the speed of the auto, she answered by "comparison."

The suit will be heard at the January term of circuit court. Attorneys W. E. and A. C. Wolf represent the plaintiff, while George H. Gordon is counsel for the defendant.

S.S.S. SUCCESSFUL SERVICE

When a medicine has stood the test for a period of more than two generations and is then more popular than ever, there can be no doubt of its merit. This is the record of S. S. S. Its period of existence is marked by a long line of cures of blood and skin diseases of every character, and its value in the treatment of such troubles has become so well known that it is today the most extensively used blood medicine on the market. For Rheumatism, Catarrh, Scrofula, Sores and Ulcers, Skin Diseases and all other troubles, due to an impure or poisoned condition of the blood, S. S. S. has no equal. It counteracts and drives out the poisons, humors and germs, cleanses the system of all unhealthy matter, cures the disease permanently and restores strong, robust health. Where the blood is weak or anaemic, and unable to furnish the body with the nourishment and strength it needs, S. S. S. supplies it with the healthful properties and acts splendidly in toning up and reinvigorating the system. It goes down to the very bottom of all blood disorders, and in this way reaches inherited taints on which the ordinary blood medicines have no effect. Not only is S. S. S. certain in its results, but it is at the same time an absolutely safe remedy. It is made entirely of roots, herbs and barks of known healing and curative value. It does not contain the slightest trace of mineral in any form to damage the delicate parts of the system, and may be used by children with the same good results and perfect safety as by older people. It is not an experiment to use S. S. S.; it is a remedy with a record and one that has proven its worth by its forty years of successful service. If you are in need of a blood purifier for any cause begin the use of S. S. S., write our physicians and they will send you a book concerning your trouble, and will give without charge any special medical advice that is required.

WHEAT AND RYE DOWN ALSO

Other Grains, Including Barley On the Toboggan; Butter Drops Three Cents Today

The grain market in La Crosse took a drop today in sympathy with the markets in the country, due partly to the conflict on Wall street. Winter wheat dropped 10 cents per bushel. Spring wheat dropped to 90 cents per bushel flat, rye is selling at 60 to 65c, a drop of 10c, and oats dropped 5c, 40 to 45c. New corn is selling on the market at 40 to 45c, while the old corn is drawing 60 to 65c per bushel. Barley dropped from 20 to 25c per bushel and is selling for 65 and 70c per bushel, although the breweries have paid as high as $1 for good barley in the past week.

Dairy butter dropped 3c per pound today owing to the prevailing conditions in the country. Eggs on track are now selling at $5.60 per case.

Love at First Sight Shows Itself—Groom Drives Fiance to Judge to Have Ceremony Performed

SIOUX FALLS, S. D., Oct. 30.—Miss Lola Galbreath of Sioux Falls was one of the principals in a romantic marriage which took place at the home of Judge Langland near Lake Andes, in Charles Mix county. Miss Galbreath recently went to Lake Andes to visit a few days. She was about to depart for home when Lars Knudsen, owner of a valuable farm near Lake Andes, learning that the young lady might be matrimonially inclined, drove hurriedly to town and sought an introduction to her.

He arrived at Lake Andes at about 5 o'clock in the afternoon and soon after was introduced to the young woman by a friend who was acquainted with her. Knudsen pushed his suit with all possible vigor and before the clock struck 6, or about an hour after his arrival in town, he had proposed marriage to the young woman and had been accepted.

It was a case of love at first sight. Miss Galbreath being as much smitten with her ardent wooer as he was with her. Bright and early the following morning Knudsen drove to Wheeler, the county seat, where he procured a marriage license. The trip was long and it was not until evening that he returned to Lake Andes. Desiring to be married by Judge Langland, Knudsen took his prospective bride into his buggy and together they drove to the home of the judge, and at 9 o'clock that evening they were pronounced man and wife.

MRS. LLOYD HAS FRIEND IN NEED

YOUNG MAN ASKS TO SETTLE FOR WOMAN.

Refuse Settlement Except on Dollar for Dollar Basis; Samritan Is Companion of Woman

ROCHESTER, Minn., Oct. 30.—A young man giving the name of Alberts came to the city yesterday from Chicago and claimed to be a friend of Mrs. Almee Lloyd, the young lady accused of passing forged checks in this city last Tuesday. Alberts said that Mrs. Lloyd's husband, F. A. Lloyd, once saved him from starving to death and the latter now wishes to pay the debt of gratitude he owes. He called upon M. Kitzman, one of the merchants who cashed a check for $35, and offered to settle for $15, but Mr. Kitzman would not settle. He said that all he had was $200, and that he wanted to settle the various accounts as best he could with that amount. He called upon all six of the merchants with the same story, but in each instance was turned down.

No one here knows Alberts or who he is, and the work done by him in the city today has not resulted in much good for the accused, as there is a feeling that the gentleman is merely her assistant.

Mrs. Lloyd still maintains her innocence and seemed considerably cheered by the presence of Mr. Alberts in the city. In an interview she says: "I had no intention to defraud anybody. If the merchants did not want to cash my checks they did not need to. I had a power of attorney to sign my husband's name to the checks, but I will not say I signed Mrs. Stern's name. That will come out in good time." The date of the trial is set for Oct. 30, and as yet Mr. Lloyd has not arrived, nor have any relatives of the girl.

HOME GROWN FRUIT EXPECTED TO RISE

APPLES ARE NOW SELLING AT $4.50 PER BARREL

Supply, However, Is Not Large; Illinois and Michigan Crops are Also Short.

The choice home grown winter apples are now selling at $4.50 a barrel in La Crosse, or if the purchaser does not want the barrel, and is willing to take them by the bushel as they come from the orchard the apples can be secured for $1.50 a bushel. It is not expected, however, that these prices will hold for long, as there is not a great deal of the best home grown stock on the market and when its value becomes known it is considered certain the price will go up. It is predicted it will not be long before the best apples will be selling for $10 a barrel here, and the price may go even beyond that. Of course it will be possible to purchase culls lower.

Missouri and Illinois have a short apple crop this year and what have been or may be packed there are not up to the usual standard of excellence. The crop in Washington is large and fine, but as most of the fruit there is fancy and packed in bushel boxes the price is out of reach for the ordinary consumer when shipped as far east as Minnesota. They are handled principally by the retail dealer for the fancy trade. The best crops are in Michigan and New York and it is from these two states that the consumers of Wisconsin must look for their supplies after the home grown product, which is not large, has gone from the market.

The Michigan crop is fairly good both in respect to quantity and quality and the same if not better may be said of the New York product, quite a large proportion of which will go into the "fancy pack" and bring fancy prices. But from the ordinary pack from either of these two states, La Crosse housewives may look for a supply in a few weeks but it is predicted they will not be as choice stock as the home grown. The kinds will be principally Baldwins, Winesaps, Greenings, Spies and Russets with possibly a small proportion of the more fancy, but not better varieties. The $10 prediction is based upon present prices, but the uncertainty of the situation may bring the price ever to a higher mark by the time the first shipments arrive and in all probability the later arrivals will be higher still.

But generally speaking the quality will be better than in former years if for no other reason than that the poorer grades up to good packing stock have been used by the vinegar makers for their supply of cider vinegar as under the pure food law that product must hereafter be made from the juice of the apple and not from any old thing that happens along as has heretofore been the practice.

COMPANION KILLED FRIEND DISAPPEAR

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Oct. 30.—Dr. W. F. Lloyd has disappeared from his home, and it is thought he has committed suicide. Nervous strain, due to the accidental killing of George H. A sentiment prevails here that Dr. Lloyd accidentally killed Manhart, and this so preyed upon his mind that he killed himself.

MAYOR ISSUES A HOLLOW'EEN ORDER

CHIEF WEBBER INSTRUCTED TO ARREST VIOLATORS

WON'T TOLERATE MALICIOUS Boys Who Permit Their Mischievous Tendency to Run Into Damaging Property Is "Pinched."

La Crosse is to enjoy a quiet Halloween. Miscreants in the habit of committing nonsensical depredations and uselessly destroying property will this season have to spend a quiet evening in innocent amusement only, as Chief John B. Webber says he will see that every district in the city of La Crosse, and surrounding territory, is thoroughly patrolled.

Chief Webber has received the following communication from the mayor and will abide by it to the letter:

Office of the Mayor, La Crosse, Oct. 30th, 1907.

Mr. John B. Webber, chief of police, La Crosse, Wis.

In view of the communications received from individuals in various parts of the city who claim to have suffered damage to property in past years on Halloween, it is necessary to make special effort to prevent repetition of such annoyance this year.

I do not wish the innocent amusement of the young people interfered with at that time, but I have to request that a sufficient number of men be placed on duty to prevent all damage to property, public or private, and the prompt arrest of any one detected doing such damage.

Yours respectfully,

WENDELL A. ANDERSON, Mayor.

DYNAMITE IGNITES; MOTHER IS KILLED

IS BLOWN TO PIECES BY A BIG CHARGE

CHILDREN ARE INJURED

Farmer Placed Explosive in Stove to Dry Out—Rear of House Is Torn Out—Two More May Die

STEVENS POINT, Wis., Oct. 30.—Mrs. Nicholas Kitowski, aged 41, of Carson, this county, was literally blown to pieces by the explosion of a stick of dynamite that had been placed on the kitchen stove to dry.

Two of her children that were clinging to the mother's skirts when the accident happened were so badly injured that they will not survive.

A third child, aged 5, that was standing near an open door, was struck by a piece of the stove, the iron being imbedded in its forehead. The fourth child was also struck by flying metal, but will recover.

Mr. Kitowski, the husband, who it is said placed the explosive on the stove intending to use it in blasting stumps later in the day, was at the barn when the explosion occurred, thus escaping injury.

The dynamite exploded with such force it is said that the rear of the house was blown away.

Carson is a small hamlet a few miles south of Junction City on the Wisconsin Valley division of the Milwaukee road.

TOWN PUZZLED TO FIND ITS LOCATION

EAGLE RIVER, Wis., Oct. 30.—(Special.)—Is the village of State Line in Wisconsin or in Michigan?

Correctly speaking, the railroad station of State Line, Wis., no longer exists. The upper peninsula now claims the town of State Line. The depot has been moved only fifty feet, yet this distance has wiped a budding settlement off the Wisconsin map.

When a crew of workmen of the railway company started to place the depot on rollers and pushed it to the northward, the villagers asked questions. Some of the crew said they had orders to move and not to talk. But others said that operators in Michigan work nine hours a day, while those in Wisconsin are required to labor but eight hours, and taxes are lower in Michigan than in Wisconsin.

INCREASE PRICE OF WHOLESALE BEER

MILWAUKEE BREWERS DECIDE ON $1 BOOST

WHOLE STATE IS EFFECTED

Smaller Plants Will Make Raise Only 50c; Prices and Materials Discussed at Meeting.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Oct. 30.—The wholesale price of beer is going up. Such action was practically decided on yesterday by 150 brewers from every part of Wisconsin and the upper peninsula of Michigan.

There is to be no movement as an organization, but individual beer manufacturers may do so with the sanction and hearty approval of the association.

It is agreed among the brewers that it would be poor policy to reduce the quality of their product in an effort to meet the over-advancing cost of labor and materials; that a trifle of increase in wholesale prices would soon be lost sight of if quality were kept up to the standard and that such action is more than justified on account of the narrow limit of profit, which has held the business near to the zero point during the past year.

About $1 per barrel more is considered about right for Milwaukee breweries, and perhaps in several other cities of the state. Elsewhere the increase will range from 50 cents up.

Retrenchment in various forms received attention and, as a result, many breweries will cut down the expense allowance of delivery wagon drivers and bill collectors. It has been customary to allow each driver a certain sum of money daily to be spent with patrons of the brewery when deliveries of beer were made to saloons.

SQUAW GETS MONEY FROM UNCLE SAM

WAUSAUKEE, Wis., Oct. 30.—(Special.)—After twenty years, Uncle Sam has settled an account of long standing with Angeline Wapenepe-ness, a squaw living at White Rapids. Her late husband, Nip-pi-ta-tis, served in the civil war with the 38th Wisconsin Infantry. He died in 1887, but the widow never received the pension due her. Among the husband's effects was found a bill of $86.40 for services, against which was a charge of $7.45 for clothing, leaving a credit balance of $78.95. After much red tape, the check was finally sent this week.

PEWAUKEE, Wis., Oct. 30.—Because Miss Helen E. M. Roberts of Chicago, popular assistant principal was discharged, fifty students of the Pewaukee High school went out on a strike Monday, refusing to return unless the teacher was reinstated.
